Palos Verdes Voters Plan General Meet

A general membership meeting of the League of Women Voters of Palos Verdes Estates has been announced for Monday, Dec. 9, at 8 p.m. The meeting will be held in the Palos Verdes Library art gallery.

The purpose of the meeting is to give consideration to the adoption of another local current agenda item for study. Representatives from the League of Women Voters of California will attend to help define how the League should proceed in this matter.

National current agenda item suggestions sent in by local members will also be considered. Mrs. Hubert Morehead will clarify national current agenda items under which these suggestions would fall.

The Palos Verdes League of Women Voters is in its first years as a full-fledged League, sharing with local Leagues all over the nation the aim of promoting political responsibility through informed and active participation in government. Membership is open to all women of voting age in Torrance and the entire South Bay area.

VFW Auxiliary

December, as always, is a busy month for Auxiliary 251, Veterans of Foreign Wars, as they see that no one in the veteran hospital at Sawtelle is overlooked on Christmas.

Dec. 3 the group spent the day wrapping gifts for the patients at Sawtelle. This gathering was held at the Lois Johnson home in Gardena.

Dec. 17 they will present a variety show for over 500 men at the hospital and will present each with cigarets after the show.

Dec. 19 will be hospital ward visitation day with gifts and cigarets.

Dec. 21, the auxiliary has planned a party for the women in the Sawtelle cottages.

Dec. 23 is the date of the party and gift exchange for Brentwood Hospital.

Dec. 25 auxiliary members will distribute gifts and cigarets to the World War I veterans in the hospital annex.

Chairmen for these parties are Mae Goodrich, past district president, and Mabel Moore.

THE SOPHISTICATE . . . Prize winning hairstyle in the senior division in the El Camino competition held last week was "The Sophisticate," created by Mrs. Eleanor Wilcox and modeled by Mrs. Jerry Moore.

OUT OF NOWHERE . . . Is the name of the first place winner in the semi-formal hairstyling junior competition held at El Camino. Mrs. Helen Giles is the designer of the hairdo and Mrs. Dorothy Miller is her model.

Hair-Styling Winners at El Camino Are Announced

Six winner in hair-styling competition were named today by Mrs. Beulah Mezzanatto, cosmetology instructor of El Camino College.

Topping all of the designs which were judged on campus Thursday was "Sophisticate," modeled by Mrs. Jerry Moore and fashioned by Mrs. Eleanor Wilcox. Mrs. Wilcox was awarded first prize in the senior division of the cosmetology competition, a semi-annual tradition of the college campus.

Both Mrs. Wilcox and her model are residents of Manhattan Beach.

Runners-up in the senior division were Miss Nancy Slane of Lomita in second place and Mrs. Angie Walkley of Hawthorne, third. Their models, respectively, were Mrs. Georgia Hession of Torrance, and Mrs. Helen Whitson of Inglewood.

In the junior division, Mrs. Helen Giles was awarded first place for the style which she calls "Out of Nowhere." Her model was Mrs. Dorothy Miller of Anaheim. Mrs. Giles is a resident of Torrance.

Mrs. Lila Irmer of Hermosa Beach was winner of the second award in the junior division, with Mrs. Addie Wells of Hermosa Beach serving as her model. Miss Lynda Davenport designed the third prize effort in the junior division with Mrs. Sally Schmidt as her model; both residents of Torrance.

Nearly 60 students are enrolled in the college cosmetology course, which has won many awards in inter-collegiate competition throughout Southern California. Instructors of the classes are Mrs. Mezzanatto, Mrs. Jessie Lewis, Mrs. Marguerite Robinson, and Mrs. Margaret Erickson.

Making the presentation of trophies to winners of the hairstyling contest were Mrs. Cleo Segrillo of Gardena, a member of the Centinea Cosmetologists Assn.
